Job Description:

Responsibilities

Under the direction of the Manager, Exhibits and Programming, the youth will work on aspects of two major projects and collections management duties:

Project 1: Off-site Storage

Canada's Sports Hall of Fame (CSHoF) will be moving portions of the current collections to a new off-site storage location. Collections will need to be handled and packed according to museum standards. During the packing process, the Youth will inventory, rehouse as required, pack, and clearly label containers of collections. Once collections have been moved to the new off-site storage, the Youth will need to input new collections locations into our collections database, PastPerfect, and ensure new collections are stored optimally.

Project 2: Off-site Visible Storage

Youth will work on the creation and installation of a brand new offsite exhibit space with visible storage. The new off-site exhibit space will comprise approximately 20,000 sq. ft. of display space including visible storage. Youth will research, choose, inventory, and pack the collections that will be best suited for visible storage. Once visible storage has been purchased, Youth will install collections into the new visible storage, creating mounts as required, and labelling items with accession and object IDs for visitor reference. The location of the items chosen for visible storage will also need to be updated in PastPerfect.

Youth will also work on collections management projects to ensure the collection is properly cared for. Youth will work on accessions paperwork, catalogue, store, update locations as required within the collection. Youth will also work on ensuring all loans are updated with correct paperwork and packed and returned as required.
